

Colleagues and coworkers can support new mothers at workplace minimizing the symptoms of PPD

1. Creating a Supportive Work Environment:

- Encourage Open Conversations:
Normalize discussions about postpartum challenges to reduce stigma.
- Be Understanding:
Recognize that adjusting to work after childbirth can be overwhelming.

2. Flexible Work Arrangements:

- Offer Remote or Hybrid Work Options:
If possible, allow flexibility in work schedules.
- Adjust Workloads:
Avoid overwhelming her with excessive tasks; gradual reintegration helps.
